The patterns of the life of wicked people do not change from generation to generation. As it was in the generation that perished in the forty-day and night rain in the time of Noah, the same is the pattern of the people that are engulfed in the worldliness of our time because the same ruler of darkness of this world is still ruling in their hearts. And so also will be the pattern of their ends unless they repent and turn away from their wickedness.

The warning signs of the end time are on and we are witnessing the unfolding every day. God is a righteous Father. He will reward the righteous but to the wicked He will not withhold His judgment. Dear friend, stop following the patterns of the worldly that leads to destruction! You have power to change the course of your spiritual destruction by seeking the face of Jesus Christ in repentance of your sins today. He will deliver you from the power of darkness and bring you into His marvelous light. He will ensure your eternity in Heaven and prevent you from Hell Fire experience in eternity.

Jesus Christ is the bridge of salvation over the mighty gulf of hell fire to the Throne of Grace upon which the wise men of old crossed from eternal condemnation to eternal commendation into the bosom of Abraham. The Bible says, “There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, oily, brash, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God—having a form of godliness but denying its power . . .” (2 Timothy 3:1-5)

When the word of wisdom is coming from the mouth of a man in the field of evangelism let the wise ears listen, let the thoughtful minds comprehend and let those who will not like to perish with the wind of this wicked world consider their ways.

CRAZY EVANGELIST

This is a true story. On January 10, 1998 I had a dream. I was in a train in the dream. The train stopped and people were stepping in. A crazy man that was dressed in tattered cloth, with a wild countenance came in and sat next to me. He looked at me intently for a while. I was somehow disturbed. I wanted to get up immediately but I decided to allow few minutes to elapse. In the process, the crazy man turned to me and smiled. “Hello!” he said. Still wondering whether to respond or just get up. “How was your day?” he continued. “Fine,” I replied flatly. As I was gathering momentum to get up, the crazy man brought out a bible and he started preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ to me. “Whaat?” I shouted from my dream. I was so shocked in disbelief and the shock woke me up.

I started thinking about this dream. I asked myself, “How can the psychiatric related disease shut down the normal ability of the crazy man to relate with people in other secular aspects of life but could not shut down the wisdom of God in him and his ability to preach the
