by walking in the light of His word because, His word is a lamp unto our feet. Let your first option, your instantaneous responses, in thought, in speech and in action be in the divine will of God. Not all that call me Lord, Lord will see the kingdom of Heaven, except those who do the will of my Father. Matthew 7:21

The important things to remember are; He who endures it to the end will be saved. The crown of righteousness is for those who finished the race. The bosom of Abraham is reserved for the over-comers. The mansion above is for those he found faithful in Him when He shall come back.

MUSICAL CHAIRS

If you’ve been to a teenage social party before, you will then know something about musical chairs. It always starts with convenient numbers of participants, but the available chairs would be one less than the number of participants. A music will start the event, the participants would dance round the chairs. Suddenly, the music will be stopped, and the participants will scramble for a seat. One person must be without a seat, and that individual will be out of the event.

One chair will also be taken out and the participants will scramble for a seat. One person must be without a seat, and that individual will be out of the event.

The important thing to remember is that you don’t lose if you don’t win. The true winner is the one who does not panic. The loser is the one who is constantly thinking about what could have happened. The winner is the one who thinks about what happened.
